

MASSIF® COMBAT SLEEVE — ATAK

COMMITTED TO YOUR PROTECTION

NON-FLAME-RESISTANT

PART NUMBERS:

Massif® Combat Sleeve — ATAK
#MJKT10347

SPECS:

- Non-Flame-Resistant

The Massif® Combat Sleeve — ATAK is a fully insulated cropped jacket that's designed to be an easily deployable cold weather option that provides the end user warmth and dexterity so they can do their job without the added bulk of multiple layers. This sleeve is designed to interface with any ATAK device attached to a plate carrier or chest rig, and includes features like a stowable helmet compatible three-point adjustable hood and built in stuff sack for portability. For weather protection, the garment is made with an encapsulated durable weather barrier shell by EPIC® by Nextec® with durable 40D ripstop lining. To make sure we are not sacrificing mobility for warmth, we have zonal insulation placements of Polartec® Alpha along with Primaloft® Active.

FEATURES:

- Fully insulated cropped jacket with inner storm fly
- Upper center front zipper closure
- ATAK opening with elastic strap/hook closure
- Helmet-compatible three-point adjustable hood
- Dual Front chest elastic slip
- Velcro® loop configuration: Right/Left Sleeves
- Front torso cummerbund attachments keep garment in place during movement
- Adjustable elastic drawcord system at bottom hem
- Durable 330D nylon reinforced elbows and lower back
- Internal back zipper pocket compresses into stuff sack
- Gusseted sleeve hems with Velcro® closure cuff tabs
